About Your Friends.

The Board of Trade, called by Mayor Brooke, for last Friday evening, did not materialize. A half dozen persons were present. Nothing was done.

We have a few one pound boxes at 15 cents. Peron's Candy Kitchen.

Mrs. R. C. Sanderson, who has been a visitor with relatives in Logan for some time since, returned last week to her home in Jacksonville, Florida.

Young men who are in the habit of buying boxes of candy for their lady friends should not fail to try the Snyders, Chaffer and Co. box goods, they guarantee every box to be the best on market. Sold by J. W. Gabriel.

Archie Stalsmith, one of our Logan boys who is in the regular army, and stationed for some time at Aspinwall, Montana, has been ordered to the Philippines.

Taffies 10 cents per pound at Peron's Candy Kitchen.

Our business men who ask your trade by their advertisements in the paper will treat you fairly. Furnace, lost his life on Monday night at their stores. Where you are of last week from the explosion of the mine, it is fair to presume you were fairly treated.

If you want good pure candy, go to Peron's Candy Kitchen.

John Stuck, a native of Union Hill, will treat you fairly. Furnace, lost his life on Monday night at their stores. Where you are of last week from the explosion of the mine, it is fair to presume you were fairly treated.

Go down to Prof. Frank Myer's Boot and Shoe Store and see his nice lot of men and boys' warm, and strong and cheap and suitable for winter wear.

The county officials, charged by the Spornon Investigating committee, appeared before the commissioners last week and while all disclaimed the justice of the findings, in order to stop any further barking and annoyance, paid the 25 per cent except Ex-commissioner Kreig. He says he did not get a dishonest dollar, owes nothing to the county, and will fight the case as long as he lives. It is thought that Commissioner Kreig, if hunted by the Spornon committee in a law suit, will make an interesting time of it, for some body.

Prof. Frank Myers predicts cold weather, but he meets this with a fine lot of nice warm shoes for every body. Call at his shop, have a chat and see his stock of goods.

The cold blizzard predicted by the weather bureau, reached Logan on Saturday night. It was almost a repetition of the "Cold New Year's." The weather was warm on Friday and Saturday. The cold came down in a rush. On Sunday morning from 63 above zero on Saturday, it was 3 below zero. Sunday was very cold. Monday morning it was 10 below zero, the coldest ever known in this country, at this season of the year. The cold wave was general in the Mississippi Valley, causing much suffering, and extending as far south as Alabama and Texas. Warm or moderating weather is predicted for some days.

Nothing finer for a present than a box of good pure candy. You get it at Peron's Candy Kitchen.

The children attending school in the new building, were properly dismissed on last Monday morning. The rooms were too cold for comfort or health, and study.

If you wish to make your Mother or Father a present with a pair of gold glasses for Christmas, call at N. J. Weiland.

The Bazaar at the Presbyterian church on last Thursday evening was well attended, and the ladies in charge are to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment.

Not candles good and pure at Peron's Candy Kitchen.

Mr. El Collins, one of Logan's popular young men, was married to Miss Abby Eby on Tuesday at the M. E. Parsonage by Rev. White. The young couple will go to house-keeping on North Mulberry street. With the many friends of the happy couple, the SENTINEL joins in Congratulations and Best Wishes.

Don't forget to call on Steve Hudson for Christmas candies and nuts.

Where it is profitable for a Logan citizen to spend his spare holiday money. In stores of distant towns, at bankrupt sales, or with persons shaking the town, or with your neighbors, with people who keep up your churches, your schools, who help you in soirees and are with you well or sick. Buy your holiday goods in Logan, from Logan merchants, who invite your trade.

N. J. Weiland has a fine line of Clocks, price run from $2.50 up to $10.00.

There is no point nor profit nor pleasure, going to Columbus to buy holiday goods. The Logan business men whose advertisements are in the SENTINEL, will supply with more elegant goods, at cheaper prices, than any store, not a bankrupt, or a move away or go out of business concern. Good sense ought to direct the holiday purchaser. The merchant who invites you to come and see him is certainly first on the list of shoppers.

Drummers, Pedlers etc, calling on coal miners, can carry free samples on which several earn up to $15 weekly cash. Brattie Co., 234 Pearl, New York.

The Lancaster gas authorities have contracted with the Logan Gas Co. for fuel supply. Our Logan Gas Co. is supplying the demands of nearly all central Ohio. Here is the place for the headquarters of the company. Logan is the center of all that is good and great in this section of the world wanting light and warmth.

Good pure candies at Peron's Candy Kitchen.

This record of "The Progress of the World" for the past month, the editor of the Review of Reviews analyzes the results of the November elections, giving special attention to the municipal campaigns, from New York to San Francisco.

Steve Hudson has a nice line of fresh candies and invites you to call.

Mr. John Harrel, of Black Jack, has our thanks for kind Christmas remembrance, a Turkey.

Taffies 10 cents per pound at Peron's Candy Kitchen.

It is a modern marvel how much that is first class in pictures and good reading can be produced and sold for 5 cents. The modern Sunday newspaper is a marvel of cheapness and usually of goodness. This is especially true of the magnificent Christmas editions which are issued by the Ohio State Journal. For several years the Christmas State Journal has been good at the best. Its complete news services, supplemented by a large and choice collection of Christmas stories, poems and articles appropriate to the season and illustrated with splendid half-tones and colored pictures, have been a source of just pride and enjoyment to its thousands of readers.

This year the Christmas number will be issued Sunday December, 15, and will comprise over 40 large pages, in which will be found something to interest and entertain every member of the family. It will have no superiors among Ohio papers. Our readers will do well to put in the order for a copy in advance, as a large sale of this very fine edition is assured in advance, and nobody will want to miss a copy. Price only 5 cents.
